Life Insurance at Cost.

Some fifteen years ago there was a strong feeling among men of moderate means, that Life Insurance was excessively costly, as estimated by the Insurance Co's. for the risk assumed by them. Thus many families were deprived of the necessary protection. Thinking men then began to search for a way out of the difficulty. The first step was the organization of Fraternal and Benevolent Societies. As time went on practical insurance men became interested in the subject, and founded and incorporated Insurance Companies upon the Mutual assessment plan based upon business principles, and embracing all possible safeguards to enhance the security of the proposition they offered the public at large.

Seven years ago the Home Benefit Life Association of San Francisco was incorporated under the laws of the State of California with prominent San Francisco merchants at its head. It started out with a determination to take its place in the Life Insurance Companies doing business on the Pacific Coast, always looking to the physical and moral condition of its risks, rather than the prominence and influence of men of note.

Its record is one which its managers may point to with pride. Its claims amounting to over $250,000 have always been paid in full and promptly, without a dollar's cost, to the beneficiaries. The Home Benefit offers inducements which appeal directly to the judgment of the man of family. Unlike all other associations of the kind it charges no membership fee, no medical fee and no annual dues.

The assessments number six a year only, regardless of deaths, with a distribution of dividends each five years, reducing the future cost a surrender value in cash at the end of five years, of the net amount paid into the reserve fund. It is careful not to incur any liabilities that may swamp it at some future time and is purely mutual, is based on perfect equity, each age contributing its just amount to meet death losses.

In conclusion, we would say that we believe, we may honestly recommend this company to our citizens, as one of the best companies doing business among us. Mr. C. E. S. Holmes, Special Agent, a man of ten years experience in insurance, both fire and life, and well known from Siskiyou to San Diego in Cal., has been making a successful trip here and has insured some of our most prominent business men, and we commend him to others desiring to secure reliable protection for their families, as a sincere and intelligent gentleman.

THE STEAM LAUNDRY.

Some Queer Freaks of the Management.

The Steam Laundry has again been leased; this time to Mr. Mansfield. The Laundry has had many ups and downs since it started, but there has hardly been a week since it started that it has not had sufficient patronage to pay all expenses and have a surplus left.

The troubles with the Laundry began when H. S. Mason went to San Francisco and recklessly invested in machinery sufficient to run a laundry three times the size of this one. After it got started it had no less than half a dozen bosses, no end of book-keepers and collectors, and some how each one appeared to be looking out for himself. Patronage was pouring in all the time, and yet the hands did not get paid, and the place was continually being threatened with attachments. All sorts of rumors were flying round, and several men connected with the Laundry have been charged on the streets with crooked work. Where did the thousands of dollars collected from the citizens of Carson go to?

The Board of Trustees are not held accountable for it, as they, too, seemed to have very little to do with the management. On one occasion, when the Board went to examine the books they were snubbed, and left the building with the idea that they were in considerable luck not to have been kicked out. Yet the same Trustees gave their individual notes for the machinery, and have had to pay several hundred dollars apiece.

Another mystery connected with the place is the remarkable disappearance of clothes. Almost everybody has lost clothes, and yesterday the APPEAL editor was informed that over twenty bundles of clothes had been stowed away in a house in this city, said clothes having been taken from the Laundry.

The women who worked like slaves in the Ironing Department were often unable to get their wages, and on some occasions they received as low as 40 cents a week for their work. They say that certain male help in the place got their wages all right, but the women had to take what they could get.

If half the reports are true about the place, some of the cheekiest cases in town have got their fins in somewhere.

Since Mr. Mansfield has taken hold of it he informs the APPEAL that he cleared money above all expenses, and this in the face of the fact that scores of families disgusted with the loss of clothes and the delay in washing, have gone back to the Chinese.

The new management states that it will pay for all clothes lost, and solicits the custom of the families of this city. There is no reason why, with honest, conscientious management, the Laundry may not be made to pay dividends to the stockholders.

The APPEAL recommends the new management to the public, and hopes that it will be given a fair chance to pull the Institution out of the rut.

THE MARKET.

Observations by Lib. Hastings.

Lib. Hastings was down here yesterday, and gave his views of the stock market. Said he:

"The gas racket is being worked now. When stocks begin to brace up some one goes along C Street and sniffs gas in the air. 'Con. Virginia burning up,' says he, and in a minute it is all along the streets, and away goes the market. Queer gas this; don't seem to inflate. 'Pon my soul, I think that they have some contrivance fixed to the gas mains, and by turning on the gas when it is needed they knock stocks and clean up a pile. A thousand cubic feet of gas only cost $6, and it knocks the whole list half a million. Powerful gas, that."

—Dan. Matheny who has been confined fourteen years in the State's Prison for killing a man named Green, writes to the Silver State and pronounces the statement made by the Walla Walla Journal regarding him, to be purely fictitious. He says he was instigated to the crime by an older person and when he was but 19 years old and that the instigator has never suffered a day's imprisonment.

A LESSON WITH A MORAL.

When will Our Eyes be Opened to This Great National Calamity?

The year 1886 played sad havoc with many prominent men of our country.

Many of them died without warning, passing away apparently in the full flush of life.

Others were sick but a comparatively short time. We turn to our files and are astonished to find that most of them died of apoplexy, of paralysis, of nervous prostration, of malignant blood humor, of Bright's disease, of heart disease, of kidney disease, of rheumatism or of pneumonia.

It is singular that most of our prominent men die of these disorders. Any journalist who watches the telegraph reports, will be astonished at the number of prominent victims of these disorders.

Many statements have appeared in our paper with others to the effect that the diseases that carried off so many prominent men in 1886, are really one disease, taking different names according to the location of the fatal effects.

When a valuable horse perishes, it becomes the nine days' talk of the sporting world, and yet thousands of ordinary horses are dying every day, their aggregate loss is enormous, and yet their death creates no comment.

So it is with individuals. The cause of death of prominent men creates comment, especially when it can be shown that one unsuspected disease carries off most of them, and yet vast numbers of ordinary men and women die before their time every year from the same cause.

It is said if the blood is kept free from uric acid, that heart disease, paralysis, nervous prostration, pneumonia, rheumatism, and many cases of consumption, would never be known. This uric acid, we are told, is the waste of the system, and it is the duty of the kidneys to remove this waste.

We are told that if the kidneys are maintained in perfect health, the uric, kidney, acid is kept out of the blood, and these sudden and universal diseases caused by uric acid will, in a large measure disappear.

But how shall this be done? It is folly to treat effects. If there is any known way of getting at the cause, that way should be known to the public. We believe that Warner's safe cure, of which so much has been written and so much talked of by the public generally, is now recognized by impartial physicians and the public as the one specific for such diseases.

Because public attention has been directed to this great remedy by means of advertising, some persons have not believed in the remedy. We cannot see how Mr. Warner could immediately benefit the public in any other way, and his valuable specific should not be condemned because some nostrums have come before the public in the same way, any more than that all doctors should be condemned because so many of them are incompetent.

It is astonishing what good opinions you hear on every side, of that great remedy, and public opinion thus based upon an actual experience, has all the weight and importance of absolute truth.

At this time of the year, the uric acid in the blood invites pneumonia and rheumatism, and there is not a man who does not dread these monsters of disease; but he need have no fear of them we are told, if he rid the blood of the uric acid cause.

These words are strong, and may sound like an advertisement, and be rejected as such by unthinking people, but we believe they are the truth and as such should be spoken by every truth-loving newspaper.

Waiting.

There are some pretty solid citizens about town who are quite seedy in their attire. It turns out that they are merely waiting for Joe Platt to go below and lay in his stock of Spring goods. They say they are willing to go seedy for a spell, in order to get a genuine article when they do buy.
